

West Gippsland FOOD TOURING MAP

WEST GIPPSLAND

Located only one hour away from Melbourne and nestled between the Great Dividing Range to the north, Mt Baw Baw to the east and the Bass Coast Western Port Bay to the south - the West Gippsland region offers travellers the perfect day trip destination to explore and indulge in a taste of country life, so close to the CBD.

Consisting of four quaint and diverse railway towns — Nar Nar Goon, Tynong, Garfield, Bunyip — the growing region offers an abundance of food, dining and agricultural experiences. Whether it's popping into a café for that much needed coffee or sampling the wealth of local Gippsland produce direct from the farmgate or visiting the cellar doors, local restaurants and pubs — West Gippsland's country hospitality awaits you.

PROGRESS ASSOC.

NAR NAR GOON

A small regional town with a strong grazing and dairy farming background, Nar Nar Goon is peppered with stunning local murals on its streetscapes and is proud of its tempting local cafes - serving up fresh local produce and farmgate outlets where visitors can purchase the local fare.

TYNONG

Located on the fringes of Pakenham, Tynong offers truly magical lifestyle and farmgate experiences, amidst the backdrop of Bunyip State Park picturesque hills. Featuring the award-winning Cannibal Creek Winery, Peppermint Ridge Farm, Gumbuya World and the new state of the art Pakenham Racing Club, Tynong is a must do destination for your next visit.

GARFIELD

Originally titled Cannibal Creek, Garfield is a colourful railway township with a distinct country and quaint rural feel. Boasting humble dining and farming experiences, as well as a spa treatment centre, stunning local homeware and clothing shops and an historic theatre hosting live performances - Garfield is packed full of fun, eclectic experiences and is a must-do day trip destination!

BUNYIP

Positioned on rich farmland, Bunyip offers a quiet country town lifestyle and enticing food experiences with local cafes serving up the finest local Gippsland produce and is home to the renowned Bunyip State Park.
